

IMAGO DEI Child Care - IMAGE-TAKING* PERMISSION FORM

Image-taking refers to the taking of photographs, videotaping, filming or any other electronic means of capturing children's images.*

Occasionally the staff take images of the children as they participate in the program. These images are used in the centre or for children's learning purposes. They may be used on posters or charts, in scrapbooks and learning materials or on cubbies and placemats as identification, to help children know where their places are.

When images are taken by the staff, we require parent or guardian permission as indicated by the parent or guardian's signature on this Image-Taking Permission Form. Images will only be taken if permission is given.
